Title: Taffetas

Taffetas play long, looping, languorous instrumentals which effortlessly ooze the kind of charm which draws the listener and holds the attention in a not-too-demanding way. In a way what we have here is a kind of world lift music collection, ideal for short sections as you travel from ground to level 7 but with sufficient content to keep you serene and relaxed when your lift comes to a shuddering halt between floors. Swiss duo Marc Liebeskind (guitar) and Christophe Erard (contrabass) join kora player Ibrahima Galissa, from Guinea-Bissau, to create a tinkling waterfall of sounds which cascades over the listener fresh and energising. Most tracks on this collection exceed six minutes in length, some are a good deal longer and benefit from their length as each tune gently unfolds, with echoes of African and European musical culture tumbling from the grooves. The clip is taken from the (just) sub-9 minute 'Saudade do meu amor' and amply demonstrates the trio's appeal.
